FORMER CHARLEROI PASTOR TELLS HOW TENER WAS REGARDED BY MINISTERS

Rev. J. H. Palmer Says He Knew Candidate as Square and Upright Man

WORTHY OF BEST SUPPORT

Was Acquainted With Candidate for Three Years and Had Dealings During That Time With Him

Dr. S. J. McMains of Leechburg, one of the prominent citizens and business men, and a member of the Republican executive committee of Armstrong county, has consented to the publication of the correspondence he had with Rev. J. H. Palmer, pastor of the Leechburg Baptist church, concerning John K. Tener, Republican nominee for Governor, whom Mr. Palmer knew for three years when he was pastor at Charleroi. Mr. Palmer's unqualified endorsement of Mr. Tener is "clean and true" in all the relations of life and is a complete answer to the slanderous accusations that have been made against him.

Leechburg, Pa., Nov. 4, 1910.
Dr. S. J. McMains,
My Dear Doctor:

Your inquiry concerning the Hon. John K. Tener at hand and will gladly add my personal knowledge concerning him.

I was pastor of the Baptist church in Charleroi, Pa., for three years and almost at the beginning of my ministry, I met him; and in church, business and temperance matters, found him a gentleman, Christian, and a man.

When there I was in touch with the political conditions, and the men for the against him, as a candidate for Congress, I failed to find one person who knew John K. Tener that could say a word against him truthfully.

Further, when the Ministerial Association met to determine as to whether we would endorse him or not, we found our ranks divided. We immediately called him to our meeting, and in a few minutes we endorsed him to a man; he proved to our satisfaction that he was worthy of our support.

I know him to be the best of citizens so far as his moral and general life is concerned, and as a friend and neighbor, and helper of men in need, or one seeking advice, no man stood higher in Charleroi.

I am satisfied that he is competent from his general makeup to make us an ideal Governor. I know him to love him. You need not heed the false charges made against him in any form, for he is clean and true.

Your friend,
Rev. J. H. Palmer,
Pastor Baptist Church,
Leechburg, Pa.

CHARLEROI PEOPLE PLAN TO ATTEND THE FINAL MEETING AT MONONGAHELA

MONESSEN STRAW VOTE PUTS TENER IN LEAD

A straw vote was taken last night in the Star Theatre at Monessen with the result that John K. Tener the Republican candidate for Governor, was given 141 votes, while his opponent, William H. Berry, was given but 52. John W. Slayton, the Socialist candidate, got 13 votes, while Senator Webster Grim, running on the Democratic ticket, had but one.

The vote was taken during the two performances at the theatre by Manager William McShaffrey. A committee composed of citizens acted as the official board. Superintendent George Nash of the Pittsburg Steel company was judge of election.

Rousing Reception to Be Given Candidate Tener by Voters of the Valley

CONFERENCE BEFOREHAND

Voters of Charleroi to Meet in Firemen's Rooms to Discuss Matters Previous to Election on Tuesday

A large body of Charleroi people are expected to go to Monongahela on Monday night to attend the closing meeting of the State Republican campaign when addresses will be made by Hon. J. K. Tener, candidate for Governor and other noted men. The precinct chairmen have asked for a final conference with the voters in the fire department hall at 7 o'clock Monday night. An adjournment will be taken at 7:30 for those present to go in a body to Monongahela.

The people from Charleroi expect to take the 7:35 car to arrive at 8 o'clock, the time when the meeting starts. At the meeting of voters here last Wednesday it was unanimously and enthusiastically voted to attend the meeting and to accommodate the crowd which will go, a special car will be run after the regular one.

Monongahela has arranged to give the gubernatorial candidate a rousing reception. An open air meeting will be held. Besides Mr. Tener, William A. Blakeley of Pittsburg, district attorney for Allegheny county, Congressman J. Francis Burke, and Congressman A. J. Barchfield will make speeches. Three bands have been engaged to furnish music, but there will be no parade. Large delegations are expected from all along the valley and many have stated they are coming from the county seat, this party to be headed by County Chairman J. Frank McClay.

FITTING UP A READING ROOM

Young Men of Lutheran Church Put Into Effect New Plan

The class of young men of the Christ Lutheran Sunday school, known as "The Daniel" class, has fitted up a social room in the church, to be conducted after the plan of a Y. M. C. A. where they will not only hold their Sunday school session, but will have open at all times to members as a reading and writing room. The plan is a new one for Charleroi, and promises to meet with great success. The class is taught by Mrs. J. K. Johnston.

to the cause of labor, and when disinterested counsel was sought in various local differences no one ever hesitated to call upon Mr. Tener for aid, knowing that he was fair and square and would do what was right. There is no truth in nor reason for the reports that Mr. Tener has always given the working man the worst of it whenever he had a chance."

PRESIDENT OF VOTERS LEAGUE OUT FOR TENER

Attorney A. Leo Weil of Pittsburg, who was at Uniontown yesterday, declared himself for John K. Tener for Governor. He also deplored W. H. Berry's "weakness."

"I do not see how Berry can fool so many voters," said Mr. Weil. "How anybody can vote for Berry with his record I do not know."

Mr. Weil, who is head of the Voters' League of Pittsburg, came to Uniontown to appear in court as counsel for the Greensboro Natural Gas company in a suit with the Monongahela Consolidated Coal and Coke company. Mr. Weil was one of the active citizens who exposed the councilmanic grafters in Pittsburg.

CANDIDATE SAYS HE WASN'T DRUNK

Charge of Minister Disproven By Statement Of Facts

At Bristol Thursday evening Congressman John K. Tener took occasion to deny a report that had been circulated against him by a minister in another part of the State. Concerning this Mr. Tener said:

"I have never yet made any reference nor do I intend to make any tonight to myself or any opponents, but I want to caution those of you who may be led by false reports. As an instance I want to give just one occurrence that has taken place within the last three or four days.

"A very good man, a minister, living in the western part of the State, preached a sermon in which he stated to his congregation that I was absolutely unfit as a candidate to be Governor of this State because he said, that I had been seen coming out of a hotel one evening in a drunken condition, and that the next morning was under the influence of liquor, and that I had to be assisted on the train as I was leaving.

"Now that, of course, is absolutely false. I have never been under the influence of liquor in my life. The fact is that I belong to a family of ten, seven of whom are brothers, and not one of them was ever under the influence of liquor. You can see how this good man preached to his congregation and that he was telling them an absolute falsehood."

"MEXICO" TOPIC OF DISCUSSION

The program was carried out as follows: "Commerce and Industry," "International Development," Miss Minnie Richardson; "Vacation Days in Mexico," Mrs. Alden O. Davis; "Struggles of Political Parties," Mrs. Karl Keffer. The names of prominent Mexican people was given in response to the roll call. The hostess was Mrs. F. P. McCloskey.

CLOSING CAMPAIGN

Final Meeting Will Be Held at Monongahela Monday

The Monongahela Valley will be out en masse to attend the big Republican rally in that city next Monday evening, when the Republican campaign will be formally closed.

There is bound to be plenty of enthusiasm as Charleroi, Monessen, Donora, California and other towns in the vicinity, to say nothing of the M. and W. Branch, will send hundreds of representatives. The local committee is hard at work on the plans and when they mature a celebration will be the result that will certainly be a fitting climax to such a remarkable campaign.

Local politicians, county seat workers, Allegheny county men, John K. Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, together with Candidates Bentley, Holland, Anderson and others will be upon the platform and will talk during the evening.

The interest in the campaign is at a feverheat along the river and the meeting next Monday night will be a fitting close and will be just in time to convince local voters that they must vote the Republican ticket.

Going to West Newton

A number of automobiles are going to West Newton tonight to attend the Republicans meeting at which time John K. Tener and other Republicans of note will speak.

The manager of the Charleroi basket ball team is requested to get in communication with the manager of McKeesport schoolastics, either by mail or Bell phone. Address, Ira Matheny, 1129 Jenny Lind street, McKeesport, Pa.

JOHN J. MURPHY FAILS TO COME

Washington Observer Schedule Somewhat Off Regarding Visit

According to the Washington Observer, chief espouser of the Keystone cause in this section, John J. Murphy of Philadelphia fame, was to appear in Charleroi yesterday afternoon and make a speech. No crowd was here to hear him, and apparently John had returned home Thursday night as enough gumption to know there would not be, for he appeared not. This was the second time Murphy was scheduled to come to Charleroi, and he failed on both occasions.

William Friday Says Things Look Good for Republican Victory

William P. Friday of Carnegie was a business visitor in Charleroi yesterday. Mr. Friday, who is now in the insurance business, was formerly connected actively with the mine workers' organizations, and served for some years as executive board member of the national organization of United Mine Workers. He is an ardent supporter of John K. Tener for Governor, and scouts the reports the opposition has been trying to circulate that Mr. Tener is hostile to the miners' interests.

"I was acquainted with Mr. Tener long before he ever thought of running for office," said Mr. Friday, "and no one stood higher in this district among the miners than he. We always regarded him as friendly

Return the Visit

Charleroi Republicans and friends of Congressman John K. Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, should return the compliment paid to Charleroi by Monongahela at the campaign opening here September 3. At that time Monongahela turned out en-masse to welcome Mr. Tener and wish him good speed in his campaign.
Monday night the campaign closes at Monongahela, and the home friends of Mr. Tener should demonstrate to him and to the State at large that they are just as loyal and enthusiastic at the finish as at the start.

Arrangements are being made for a large delegation of Charleroi friends of Mr. Tener to be present at the closing rally. Every voter should show his loyalty by turning out to this demonstration. Not only from Charleroi but everywhere up and down the river should the Tener legions express their sentiments and loyalty with their presence. Now is a good time to show to the State at large that the scandalous libels circulated against Mr. Tener have no weight or bearing in his home district. A rousing turnout at the Monongahela rally Monday will do much toward getting a big vote out on the following day at the polls.

Let Us Suppose

Under the head of "Let Us Suppose" the Uniontown Herald reverses the position of the candidate in the Keystone campaign of mud-slinging and personal vituperation, and asks what would happen if the Keystone candidates were on the Republican ticket and the mud batteries of the opposition were directed against them:
"Let us suppose for the sake of illustration that W. H. Berry were the Republican nominee for Governor of Pennsylvania and two such opposition newspapers of the virulence of the Philadelphia North American and the Pittsburgh Leader were daily trailing their mud batteries upon him.
"Let us suppose that they were to exploit the fact that it was not Berry

but a prying reporter for a Philadelphia newspaper that discovered the Capitol steals, and that it was only after great persuasion Berry was induced to institute an investigation into the warrants which had been drawn on the treasury for work done on the Capitol.

"Let us suppose that they were to exploit the fact that purely through negligence Berry when State Treasurer authorized deposits of State funds in institutions that were defunct.

"Let us suppose that they were to exploit the fact that during Berry's incumbency of the State Treasury he did not spend one-third of his time in the office.

"Let us suppose that they were to exploit the fact that Berry borrowed the sum of $15,000 from Col. J. M.
Guffey, giving therefor as security collateral which did not bring one-third the debt when Berry's paper went to protest, and that this debt remains unpaid to this day.

"Let us suppose that they were to exploit the fact that D. C. Gibboney, Berry's running mate on the Keystone ticket, was involved in a get-rich-quick scheme notorious enough to become the subject of exploitation by the Philadelphia Public Ledger, one of the most conservative papers in the State.

"Let us suppose—but what's the use? If a saint with a soul as pure as the driven snow were to run for office in Pennsylvania against the opposition of this kind he would find himself covered with muck before his campaign were a week old."

The Herald very tritely remarks that if some of the leading Keystone and rampant shouters for Berry right here at home were forced to stand up before the guns of these newspapers how long would they remain un-smirched? Suppose the North American got after E. F. Acheson, would not his past career afford some rich material for opposition exploitation?
Campaign slanders are like figures that won't lie, but which can be made to tell anything.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Have you noticed how the wind is shifting Tener ward, as it usually does to the Republican party candidates a few days before election?

Women are getting more sensible.
They are getting more interested in becoming perfect than they are in dressing prettily.

A person to read the Washington
Observer of four and five years ago and compare it with the Observer of today, begins to wonder after the usual style, "Who's loony now?"

Greene county people are not strong for William H. Berry. They do not think he knows how to hold down the job.

Monongahela is going to have the proudest day of its existence next Monday night, when John K. Tener and the Republican candidates for offices will visit that town.

We had been hoping all the time that Gibboney and Berry would waste some time in Charleroi, but the best they could do was beat it through in automobiles.

After Berry runs a few more times for office, Bryan will have nothing on him as the perpetual one.

Some of the big skyscrapers in New York City are said to sway ten inches.
Some of the Pennsylvania newspapers, notably the North American, the Pittsburgh Leader and the Washington Observer, have been in the habit of swaying miles.

REFORMER ACCUSED OF PAYING SANDERSON BILL

The Harrisburg Telegraph in its issue of Wednesday prints the following article:

"William H. Berry, Keystone party candidate for Governor, not only did not discover the frauds in the furnishing of the State Capitol, but he sat in his office for weeks with the evidence of the speculations by means of padded bills all around him and never knew it until he was told by an outside party. Worse yet, he paid a bill for Sanderson after his attention had been called to the nefarious transaction connected with the equipment of the State House.

"Berry is generally supposed to have been told about the frauds early in September of 1906. The information was given to him 'straight' as they say in Harrisburg when speaking of genuine information filled with facts. Then Berry asked some questions and looked at some books. That was the way he 'lifted the lid,' and if he had looked a little closer he would have found more and been able to be of assistance to the Capitol Investigation commission, headed by John S. Fisher, the Senator from Indiana, instead of furnishing no information of value as stated by Senator Fisher and his colleague A. E. Sisson of Erie, now Auditor General.

"B. F. Measey, Berry's cashier and right-hand man, in rushing to the defense of his chief in the Philadelphia Public Ledger of Monday morning, made this incautious statement:

"Mr. Berry during his term never paid Mr. Sanderson one dollar."

"The Telegraph presents herewith a photograph of a bill rendered to the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings on January 4, 1907, four months after Berry had been given his information as to the frauds. It calls for $3,199.94 for carpets for the legislative halls and accompanying it is a photograph of the settlement sheet drawn in payment of the bill on January 9, 1907, and bearing the signature of William H. Berry, then State Treasurer, and member of the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings showing that he approved of it, and the further approval for payment of the same bill by Measey himself as cashier of the treasury. The documents from which these photographs were made are on file in the State Capitol.

"The truth is that if William H.
Berry had looked over his ledgers in his department when he took hold he would have found on May 2, 1906, just before he went into office, payments approximating $950,919.72 to Sanderson alone. There were six of these payments and to a man of Berry's suspicious nature would have furnished a clue and if he had found that page before the Capitol probers he would have told the world. It remained for the Republican administration to take that page and convict the men responsible for the frauds in the transaction on what was learned from the probers, not from Berry.

"From May's first Monday in 1906, until in the fall Berry paid bills presented to him for Capitol equipment and apparently without looking back over his books. He could have investigated the scope of the contracts easily. Before he came into office Sanderson, George Payne and Co., and the Pennsylvania Construction company, contractors for metallic furniture, had been drawing money in the millions. Berry sat in office for weeks and weeks, as Senator Fisher says, with 'the evidence of the fraud stacked around him and oblivious of its existence until he was told by an outside party.

"In this time Berry approved and paid these bills:

Pennsylvania Construction Company
—1906, May 9, marble base, $88.35;
metallic furniture, $1,048.80; June 13, marble base, $303.36. Total $1,- 437.51.

John H. Sanderson—1907, January 9, carpets for Senate and House of Representatives, $3,199.94.

George F. Payne and Co.,—1906,
May 8, Parquetry flooring $6,030.90;
attic work, $789.75; June 13, parquetry flooring, $24,949.90; July 11, parquetry flooring, $33,884.60; August 15, parquetry flooring, $23,889.60;
September 12, parquetry flooring, $26,024.40. Total, $114,764.40.

"In addition he paid on January 14, 1907, $651.49, the bill for the flag pole which he said could be duplicated for $75. He approved the settlement for this bill.

"Berry stopped payment on bills presented January 2, 1907 by Sanderson for $21,712, $32,829.49, $26,350, $17,987.70 and 10,000.20 and by Houston for $50,000. That was months after he had been told about the frauds.

"Berry, like Dr. Cook of Arctic fame, is condemned by his own books."

WHEN PENNSYLVANIA WENT DEMOCRATIC

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

In 1882 Robert E. Pattison was elected Governor of Pennsylvania. He was a Democrat.

His election was followed in 1884 by the choice of a Democratic President.

In 1890 Pennsylvania again elected a Democratic Governor.
Two years later Cleveland for the second time became President.

In 1910 a tremendous effort is put forth to induce history to repeat itself. Regular Democrat Grim and Bolting Bryan Democrat Berry are fighting the Republican Party in Pennsylvania.
Should either one of them be elected, the parallels of history would indicate a Democratic President in 1912.

Throughout the Nation the one solid issue is the tariff. It is the real issue in Pennsylvania, just as it is elsewhere. It was the issue when, in 1890, the Democrats carried Pennsylvania.
The McKinley tariff was fought in those days just as is the Payne tariff today. We heard about the "robber" tariff; about high prices; and there were the promises that things would be entirely different if the Democrats could once get into power.

Well, they got into power. The election of Pattison in Pennsylvania was followed by the election of a Democratic President, and immediately the tariff was revised; just as the Democrats intend to do now should they be given the opportunity.

Is there a wage earner in Pennsylvania, who was working then, who does not remember just what happened?
Does he forget the stagnation in business and manufacturing industries?

Prices went down, to be sure, but no one had the money to take advantage of the lower cost. The chief industry was the free soup kitchen and the free bakery, and thousands of families who had never begged in their lives were forced to seek charity.

These are good things to remember when agitators, through any pretense whatever, strive to turn this State over to the Democrats and advocate the election of Democratic candidates for Congress.

In 1906 A. H. Anderson was nominated by the Republicans of Washington County for State Senator.
Greene County also presented a candidate in the person of Hon. Daniel S. Walton. Under the conferee system then in vogue, each candidate was entitled to an equal number of conferees. The rules of the State Committee provided that in case of a disagreement, the State Chairman should appoint an umpire, whose vote should decide.

Col. W. R. Andrews, then State Chairman, appointed
W. S. Parker, who decided in favor of Mr. Walton. How well Mr. Anderson supported the ticket after being turned down is best told by the following letter from A. M. Templeton, then Chairman for Washington County:—

Col. W. R. Andrews,
1417 Locust Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.
Dear Sir:—
You will remember that Mr. Anderson was a candidate for State Senate from the Washington-Greene district, and that I had a talk with you one day late last summer, at Atlantic City, regarding same. You saw fit to arrange matters so that Mr.
Anderson would not receive the nomination, and the result was fully as bad as I told you it would be. Mr. Anderson developed great strength at the primary, and his friends were exceedingly indignant over his defeat and the manner of it. Had he stopped right there, as many would under the circumstances, it would have been a very serious matter for the whole Republican ticket in this county. Mr. Anderson, however, was not that kind of a Republican. He placed himself at the disposition of the County Committee and did everything in his power to undo the harm that had been done, and worked faithfully throughout the campaign. The indignation of his friends, however, was so great that, notwithstanding all he could do, our majority was several hundred less than it would have been had he been on the ticket, but he saved us many hundreds that we would have lost had it not been for his faithful work.
Yours very truly,
A. M. TEMPLETON,
Chairman.

DISTILLER HELPS THE BERRY CAUSE

Attorney Says One Contributed $20,000 to Keystone Campaign

Over 1,500 Republicans turned out to a mass meeting in the Canonsburg Opera House last night. The building was packed to the doors and loudly applauded the names of John K. Tener and other members of the ticket. William A. Blakeley, district attorney of Allegheny county; Owen E. Underwood, district attorney of Washington county and Joseph A.
Vitcheston of Pittsburgh told why
Tener should be elected.

Mr. Underwood told of W. J.
Eckert, a distiller of Fayette county, donating $20,000 to the Berry campaign. Blakeley strongly indorsed Tener, saying he knew him from boy-hood and that he was always a clean man. The response in applause and cheers proved that the voters have indorsed all libelous reports.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedial measures, and that is by the use of the Eustachian tube. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed it causes a humming sound or interference in the hearing, and when it is entirely closed, hearing is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

People Who Work Indoors With Their Hands

Seamstresses, watch-makers, artists, draughtsmen, and many others, cannot properly handle their tools with cold, stiff hands. Many a lost hour or two on cold winter mornings results from the delayed heat of furnace or stove.

The Perfection Oil Heater in a few minutes gives the temperature that assures the worker warm hands and pliable muscles. The quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

It has a damper top and a cool handle. Indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain, and cannot get lost.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection is finished in japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

MINERS ARE OUT FOR MR. TENER

The miners of the State and this district are not going back on John K. Tener next Tuesday. Statements have repeatedly been made by antagonistic publications of no standing, such as the Pittsburgh Leader and the Washington Observer, that the miners are strictly against the Republican nominee, but declarations of John Mitchell, ex-president of the United Mine Workers of America, and Francis Feehan, president of this district, have branded these statements false.

The National Labor Tribune says that on July 4 both Mitchell and Feehan attended the Charleroi celebration and advised the miners here to support Mr. Tener, President Feehan in an interview said:

"The speeches of Mr. Tener have been effective because the union miners know him. He was their candidate for Congress two years ago, and his record was so good that there is no reason why he should not be their candidate for Governor."

Wise Men of Gotham.

A "wise man of Gotham" is a fool, but the phrase arose through the real wisdom of the people that lived in the English town of Gotham. The story goes that King John of England once visited the town with the intention of seeing a castle that he thought of taking for himself. But the Gothamites did not care for the nearness of royalty and the expense they would be put to if the king should have a house there, and so they cooked up a scheme to drive him away. When the king arrived with his company of followers and rode through the town he saw all the inhabitants of Gotham going through the most foolish of tasks, each person with a silly smile on his face. The king was disgusted with them. He would not live among crazy people, and so he rode on through the town and did not stop for the castle. Then the wise men of Gotham, still smiling, but not in a silly fashion, told one another that there were more fools that passed through Gotham than remain in it.

Rev. J. H. Palmer Says He Knew Candidate as Square and Upright Man

WORTHY OF BEST SUPPORT

Was Acquainted With Candidate for Three Years and Had Dealings During That Time With Him

Dr. S. J. McMains of Leechburg, one of the prominent citizens and business men, and a member of the Republican executive committee of Armstrong county, has consented to the publication of the correspondence he had with Rev. J. H. Palmer, pastor of the Leechburg Baptist church, concerning John K. Tener, Republican nominee for Governor, whom Mr. Palmer knew for three years when he was pastor at Charleroi. Mr. Palmer's unqualified indorsement of Mr. Tener is "clean and true" in all the relations of life and is a complete answer to the slanderous accusations that have been made against him.

Leechburg, Pa., Nov. 4, 1910.
Dr. S. J. McMains,
My Dear Doctor:
Your inquiry concerning the Hon. John K. Tener at hand and will gladly add my personal knowledge concerning him.

I was pastor of the Baptist church in Charleroi, Pa., for three years and almost at the beginning of my ministry, I met him; and in church, business and temperance matters, found him a gentleman, Christian, and a man.

When there I was in touch with the political conditions, and the men for the against him, as a candidate for Congress, I failed to find one person who knew John K. Tener that could say a word against him truthfully.

Further, when the Ministerial Association met to determine as to whether we would indorse him or not, we found our ranks divided. We immediately called him to our meeting, and in a few minutes we indorsed him to a man; he proved to our satisfaction that he was worthy of our support.

I know him to be the best of citizens so far as his moral and general life is concerned, and as a friend and neighbor, and helper of men in need, or one seeking advice, no man stood higher in Charleroi.

I am satisfied that he is competent from his general makeup to make us an ideal Governor. I know him to love him. You need not heed the false charges made against him in any form, for he is clean and true.

Your friend,
Rev. J. H. Palmer,
Pastor Baptist Church,
Leechburg, Pa.

PRESIDENT OF VOTERS LEAGUE OUT FOR TENER

Attorney A. Leo Weil of Pittsburgh, who was at Uniontown yesterday, declared himself for John K. Tener for Governor. He also deplored W. H. Berry's "weakness."

"I do not see how Berry can fool so many voters," said Mr. Weil.

"How anybody can vote for Berry with his record I do not know."

Mr. Weil, who is head of the Voters' League of Pittsburgh, came to Uniontown to appear in court as counsel for the Greensboro Natural Gas company in a suit with the Monongahela Consolidated Coal and Coke company. Mr. Weil was one of the active citizens who exposed the continuous grafters in Pittsburgh.

CANDIDATE SAYS HE WASN'T DRUNK

Charge of Minister Disproven By Statement Of Facts

At Bristol Thursday evening Congressman John K. Tener took occasion to deny a report that had been circulated against him by a minister in another part of the State. Concerning this Mr. Tener said:

"I have never yet made any reference nor do I intend to make any tonight to myself or any opponents. But I want to caution those of you who may be led by false reports. As an instance I want to give just one occurrence that has taken place within the last three or four days.

"A very good man, a minister, living in the western part of the State, preached a sermon in which he stated to his congregation that I was absolutely unfit as a candidate to be Governor of this State because he said, that I had been seen coming out of a hotel one evening in a drunken condition, and that the next morning was under the influence of liquor, and that I had to be assisted on the train as I was leaving.

"Now that, of course, is absolutely false. I have never been under the influence of liquor in my life. The fact is that I belong to a family of ten, seven of whom are brothers, and not one of them was ever under the influence of liquor. You can see how this good man preached to his congregation and that he was telling them an absolute falsehood."

CLOSING CAMPAIGN

Final Meeting Will Be Held at Monongahela Monday

The Monongahela Valley will be out en masse to attend the big Republican rally in that city next Monday evening, when the Republican campaign will be formally closed.

There is bound to be plenty of enthusiasm as Charleroi, Monessen, Donora, California and other towns in the vicinity, to say nothing of the M. and W. Branch, will send hundreds of representatives. The local committee is hard at work on the plans and when they mature a celebration will be the result that will certainly be a fitting climax to such a remarkable campaign.

Local politicians, county seat workers, Allegheny county men, John K. Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, together with Candidates Bentley, Holland, Anderson and others will be upon the platform and will talk during the evening.

The interest in the campaign is at a feverheat along the river and the meeting next Monday night will be a fitting close and will be just in time to convince local voters that they must vote the Republican ticket.

Going to West Newton

A number of automobiles are going to West Newton tonight to attend the Republicans meeting at which time John K. Tener and other Republicans of note will speak.

MONESSEN STRAW VOTE PUTS TENER IN LEAD

A straw vote was taken last night in the Star Theatre at Monessen with the result that John K. Tener the Republican candidate for Governor, was given 141 votes, while his opponent, William H. Berry, was given but 52. John W. Slayton, the Socialist candidate, got 13 votes, while Senator

Webster Grim, running on the Democratic ticket, had but one.

The vote was taken during the two performances at the theatre by Manager William McShaffrey. A committee composed of citizens acted as the official board. Superintendent George Nash of the Pittsburgh Steel company was judge of election.

Rousing Reception to Be Given Candidate Tener by Voters of the Valley

A large body of Charleroi people are expected to go to Monongahela on Monday night to attend the closing meeting of the State Republican campaign when addresses will be made by Hon. J. K. Tener, candidate for Governor and other noted men. The precinct chairmen have asked for a final conference with the voters in the fire department hall at 7 o'clock Monday night. An adjournment will be taken at 7:30 for those present to go in a body to Monongahela.

The people from Charleroi expect to take the 7:35 car to arrive at 8 o'clock, the time when the meeting starts. At the meeting of voters here last Wednesday it was unanimously and enthusiastically voted to attend the meeting and to accommodate the crowd which will go, a special car will be run after the regular one.

Monongahela has arranged to give the gubernatorial candidate a rousing reception. An open air meeting will be held. Besides Mr. Tener, William A. Blakeley of Pittsburgh, district attorney for Allegheny county, Congressman J. Francis Burke, and Congressman A. J. Barchfield will make speeches. Three bands have been engaged to furnish music, but there will be no parade. Large delegations are expected from all along the valley and many have stated they are coming from the county seat, this party to be headed by County Chairman J. Frank McClay.

The plan is a new one for Charleroi, and promises to meet with great success. The class is taught by Mrs. J. K. Johneton.

to the cause of labor, and when disinterested counsel was sought in various local differences no one ever hesitated to call upon Mr. Tener for aid, knowing that he was fair and square and would do what was right. According to the Washington Observer, chief espouser of the Keystone cause in this section, John J. Murphy of Philadelphia fame, was to appear in Charleroi yesterday afternoon and make a speech. This was the second time Murphy was scheduled to come to Charleroi, and he failed on both occasions.

Mr. Friday, who is now in the insurance business, was formerly connected actively with the mine workers' organizations, and served for some years as executive board member of the national organization of United Mine Workers. He is an ardent support of John K. Tener for Governor, and scouts the reports the opposition has been trying to circulate that Mr. Tener is hostile to the miners' interests.

"I was acquainted with Mr. Tener long before he ever thought of running for office," said Mr. Friday, "and no one stood higher in this district among the miners than he. We always regarded him as friendly

In 1906 A. H. Anderson was nominated by the Republicans of Washington County for State Senator.

Greene County also presented a candidate in the person of

Hon. Daniel S. Walton. Under the conferee system then

in vogue, each candidate was entitled to an equal number of conferees. The rules of the State Committee provided

that in case of a disagreement, the State Chairman should

appoint an umpire, whose vote should decide.

Col. W. R. Andrews, then State Chairman, appointed

W. S. Parker, who decided in favor of Mr. Walton. How well Mr. Anderson supported the ticket after being turned down is best told by the following letter from A. M. Tem-

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

In 1852 Robert E. Pattison was elected Governor of Pennsyl-

His election was followed in 1854 by the choice of a Demo-

In 1890 Pennsylvania again elected a Democratic Governor.

Two years later Cleveland for the second time became Presi-

In 1910 a tremendous effort is put forth to induce history to

AMONG THE THEATRES

The Palace—Charleroi

"Settled out of Court" was the title of a feature photoplay at the Palace Theatre this week. The story was that of a society woman who surprises her husband in a tete-a-tete with a pretty woman at a reception. In a spirit of jealousy the wife starts a flirtation with a society clubman. The couple quarrel and decide to go to Reno to get a divorce. The little son Willie, learning the cause of the estrangement and the whereabouts of his parents decides to go to Reno and induce them to return. Having no money, he takes to singing in the streets until he earns enough. Meeting his parents at Reno he effects a reconciliation between the two and the case is "Settled Out of Court." Two illustrated songs made a hit this week "O, O, Ohio," Eddie Leonard's latest success, sung by Donald Garrison and "My Gal Mollie," sung by Edward Krahmer. "Everybody's Happy When the Moon Shines," was a popular spot light song rendered by Donald Garrison.

The Coyle—Charleroi

Everyone should be interested in the forthcoming of Madam Clifford who will be at the Coyle in Charleroi next week, the most mysterious woman in the world and the greatest mind reader that has ever appeared in public. It is a known fact that she has done some of the most wonderful things that ever has been known in discovering lost relatives, those that have supposed to have died and that have left their homes for several years and have never been heard of, the discovery of valuable papers, diamonds jewelry of all kinds that have been lost, supposedly stolen, some which were and others that were misplaced hurriedly and the owner forgetting where they placed them. Even going so far as to tell the history of a simple razor which was handed to her at one time that no one really knew the real history of it only the owner and it had quite a sensation connected with it. Madam Clifford answers as well. There is no guessing for the people that receive the answer know very readily if the answer is correct or not. It is one of the most interesting performances today before the American public.

The Nixon—Pittsburg

Raymond Hitchcock, who comes to the Nixon theatre next week starting Monday, November 7, in Geo. M. Cohan's latest music play, "The Man Who Owns Broadway," is the artist per excellence among our comedians of melodic comedy. Unlike most such comedians, he is an actor. His work is done in a lovable, laughable humor; it is enjoyable to see and to remember. Others in the fine cast are John Hendricks, Francis Lieb, Mildred Earline, Leila Rhodes, Mark Sullivan, Gertrude Wester, Leland Stearns, Amondin, Curte Karp, and Ralph Harlow. The chorus is unusually large.

The proprietor of the Great White Way is Sydney Lyons, New York's favorite comedian. He is the David Garrick of Tom Robertson's old play "David Garrick" in modern setting. David Garrick talking slang instead of sentiment, his courtly elegance translated into polished impudence and a merry cheek. Sylvia, daughter of wealthy even multi wealthy Mr. Bridwell, has fallen in love with Sydney Lyons from the stage box. She carries his photo in a red morocco case and kisses it when the guests fit in the chorus dance out of the room and give her a chance to be alone with her love in the scarlet frame. In spite of this fact, papa multi-millions insists on announcing Sylvia's engagement to the villain's blonded accomplice to the extent of much money stocks and jewels.

The Alvin—Pittsburg

Miss Maxine Elliott, whose seasons usually include a long run in New York, supplemented by engagements in Boston, Philadelphia, Washington and Pittsburg with sometimes a brief excursion to Chicago, will devote from her custom this year and following an autumn engagement at the Maxine Elliott Theatre in New York will strike straight across the country to the Pacific Coast where she has not been seen in four years. She will, of course, play a few principal cities on the way out and will be seen in Pittsburg at the Alvin Theatre next week.

Her vehicle will be the jolly neustical comedy "The Inferior Sex," in which she was seen in New York for a long run last winter at Daly's Theatre. The star will be supported by practically the same organization which surrounded her at Daly's and will carry on the road the same elaborate scenic investiture, showing the decks and superstructure of the yacht, "Firefly" and also the luxuriously appointed cabin of the vessel. In her company is the celebrated English comedian, O. B. Clarence and Mr. Frederic Kerr who is also a Lon-

The Grand—Pittsburg

The week beginning Monday afternoon, November, will witness the performances at the Grand Opera House of a coterie of the world's most artistic entertainers. They have been recruited by Manager Harry Davis from many distant points and geographically this vaudeville show may be said to span the universe. From the Antipodes comes Albert Whelan, Australia's favorite drawing room artist. Elsie Fay, the topsy-turvy comedian who was for a season, principal tumbler of the Harry Davis Traversty company in the old Avenue Theatre and who starred as "The Belle of Avenue," will deliver an eccentric and impromptu musical monologue. She has repertoire of song characterizations made to fit her unusual and peculiar talents. "Those French Girls" is a term which is now generally applied to the Amoros Sisters, a pair of Parisian beauties, who have been the rage in New York this season. They are presenting a brilliant and varied diversion, a real Parisian diversion, consisting of comedy, French dances, singing, trapeze exploits and other examples of advanced physical culture.

George Felix, with the three Barry girls is going to present a revised version of "The Boy Next Door." Barry girls are daughters of the late William Barry and in their songs, dances and dialogue show that they have inherited the talents which made their father famous. The Three Dolce Sisters, very comely Italian girls will give what has been described as "vaudeville's daintiest singing act."

Numerous other specialties are underlined for the forth-coming week and where will be added to the exhibition of motion pictures which are the latest products to the most advanced studios.

New Duquesne—Pittsburg

That uproariously funny Hoyt farce, "A Milk White Flag," will be the mirth provoking attraction at the Duquesne Theatre next week. A full singing chorus will take part as well as a brass band, drum corps, and a bevy of girlish vivandieres. A dozen musical numbers will be interpolated. The plot of the piece concerns the desperate rivalry between two fashionable militia companies—the Ransome Guards and the Daly Blues—who do not stop at anything in their endeavors to outdo each other. The fact that the Blues gave a military funeral of one of their dead comrades so excites the Guards, that they at once determine upon having a military funeral of their own. But where to get the "corpse?" This question is solved by a shifty individual named Pigott Luce, who is only too glad to play the part of a "corpse" in order to elude the police. To add to the complications, his widow, who has been previously seeking a divorce, now finds that she must hide that fact in order to get the life insurance. She is also pursued by two rival suitors—the colonel and the general, both of whom arrange ritual serenades with a most unexpected climax. The widow also palms off her sixteen year old daughter as an "orphan child of mine" and the madcap antics of this over precocious Jansel, keeps the entire militia company in an uproar. Albert Morrison will have the part of the colonel who thinks "That Napoleon looked like him"; May Hall will portray the gay and dashing widow, Mrs. Pigott Luce; Edson Miles will be the unlucky "corpse," who goes through such excruciating adventures; Alice Riker will be the adventuringly sophisticated Pony Luce, who figures as the "Daughter of the Regent."

People Who Work Indoors With Their Hands

Seamstresses, watch-makers, artists, draughtsmen, and many others, cannot properly handle their tools with cold, stiff hands. Many a lost hour or two on cold winter mornings results from the delayed heat of furnace or stove.

The Perfection Oil Heater in a few minutes gives the temperature that assures the worker warm hands and pliable muscles. The quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

It has a damper top and a cool handle. Indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain, and cannot get lost.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection is finished in Japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness. Profit by Charleroi People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are common early symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. MINERS ARE OUT FOR MR. TENER

The miners of the State and this district are not going back on John K. Tener next Tuesday. Statements have repeatedly been made by antagonistic publications of no standing, such as the Pittsburgh Leader and the Washington Observer, that the miners are strictly against the Republican nominee, but declarations of John Mitchell, ex-president of the United Mine Workers of America, and Francis Feehan, president of this district, have branded these statements false.

The National Labor Tribune says that on July 4 both Mitchell and Feehan attended the Charleroi celebration and advised the miners here to support Mr. Tener, President Feehan in an interview said:

"The speeches of Mr. Tener have been effective because the union miners know him. He was their candidate for Congress two years ago, and his record was so good that there is no reason why he should not be their candidate for Governor."

Wise Men of Gotham.

A "wise man of Gotham" is a fool, but the phrase arose through the real wisdom of the people that lived in the English town of Gotham. The story goes that King John of England once visited the town with the intention of seeing a castle that he thought of taking for himself. But the Gothamites did not care for the noisiness of royalty and the expense they would be put to if the king should have a house there, and so they cooked up a scheme to drive him away. When the king arrived with his company of followers and rode through the town he saw all the inhabitants of Gotham going through the most foolish of tasks, each person with a silly smile on his face. The king was disgusted with them. He would not live among crazy people, and so he rode on through the town and did not stop for the castle. Then the wise men of Gotham, still smiling, but not in a silly fashion, told one another that there were more fools that passed through Gotham than remain in it.
